Community Day at History Museum

On Saturday, Dec. 14, the Oregon History Museum celebrates Community Day with free admission from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with special activities from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Visitors are invited to view the current exhibit "Folding Paper: The Infinite Possibilities of Origami" a groundbreaking exhibition that explores the evolution of origami from craft to fine art, and its stunning modern-day applications in the fields of mathematics, engineering, design, and the global peace movement.

Over 140 works by 45 master folders from 16 countries showcase the power and potential of contemporary origami.

You can also get into the spirit of the holiday season with a special performance by Blueprint Ensemble Arts and Theatre Initiative, who will be singing carols from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The Oregon History Museum is located in the Oregon Historical Society on the South Park Blocks of downtown at 1200 S.W. Park Ave.

An exhibit on the evolution of origami from craft to fine art is one of the many attractions to see at the Oregon History Museum, downtown. You can see the exhibit for free when the Oregon Historical Society celebrates Community Day with free admission this Saturday, Dec. 14.
