Christmas Cookie Fundraiser

Orders are being taken for a Christmas Cookie Fundraiser in association with the Miracles community to make sure deserving kids have gifts to unwrap on Christmas morning.

The cookies will be baked and decorated by parents at the Café at Miracles next door to the Miracles Club at 4200 N.E. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Safeway is donating the cookie dough for the baking.

The event also supports the Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus holiday events that the Miracles Club sponsors for local children every year.

A box of cookies containing a baker's dozen (13) is available for a $10 donation. Proceeds will be used to buy the holiday gifts for disadvantaged kids.

If you would like to support this fundraiser, cookies can be ordered by calling Kim Lehmann at the Café at Miracles at 971-200-7227 or 541-260-2653.

Cookie boxes can be purchased at the cafe for pickup or delivery until Dec 20 or they are sold out. Café hours are Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Michael Booker Jr. and Leah Strong decorate boxes for a Christmas Cookie Fundraiser to benefit the Miracles community and sponsored by The Portland Observer, Café at Miracles and Safeway.
