Bodies, Sound and Architecture

POV Dance premieres 3x3, a multimedia dance experience performed throughout the hallways and common spaces of The Leftbank Project, 240 N. Broadway.

Leftbank Project opens site to POV Dance

If you've been to The Leftbank Project lately you may have caught people hanging off railings, doing handstands on stairs, or lifting each other in the air. That's because site-specific POV Dance is currently rehearsing for their new work.

POV Dance returns to the Portland dance scene with 3x3, an original architecturally-based work of contemporary dance, set in the three integrated buildings of The Leftbank Project, a historic landmark at 240 N. Broadway that has housed a succession of businesses, most notably the iconic 1940s Dude Ranch jazz club.

In 2008, meticulously reimaged and restored after years of vacancy, Leftbank opened its doors to reclaim its spot as a hub of creativity and culture.

POV Dance will transform this extraordinary space into a moving landscape of bodies, sound and architecture. Small audiences will be guided through hallways, stairwells, open spaces and intimate nooks, following a series of three duets.

Opening night is Thursday, Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. with shows continuing Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 6 p.m. through Jan. 26.

Regular tickets $20 with discounts for children under 12. Visit povdance.org or obtain tickets at the door one hour before the show.
