

Mississippi
 Alberta
 North Portland

Vancouver
 East County
 Beaverton

Jazz Legend Phil Cohran will perform Thursday, Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hollywood Theatre in northeast Portland, as part of a new Mississippi Records Music and Film Series.

Jazz Legend Phil Cohran Live

Portland show first for longtime artist and thinker

North Portland's Mississippi Records presents Jazz Legend Phil Cohran live as part of a new Mississippi Records Music and Film Series at the Hollywood Theatre.

Cohran will perform in two parts on Thursday, Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. He will present a slideshow and lecture on the cosmos, slavery, Afrocentrism and his Artistic Heritage Ensemble. After this presentation, he will play a live set on various instruments, including harp, trumpet and Francophone.

This will be Cohran's first appearance ever in Portland, a rare opportunity to see a musician of this caliber in an intimate setting like the Hollywood Theatre. Cohran has been a very active artist and thinker since the early 1960's.

He was a member of Sun Ra's Arkestra and brought many of the more "international" rhythms and instruments to the groups sound. He has self-produced many amazing records over the years including the "Malcolm X Memorial" LP reissued by Mississippi Records. He currently lives in Chicago where he is still very active in the music and cosmic thinking.

The Hollywood Theatre, a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to entertain, inspire, educate and connect the community through the art of film, while preserving a historic Portland landmark, is located in the center of the Hollywood neighborhood at 4122 N.E. Sandy Blvd.