Stephen Petronio's dancers are known for their burning, high-speed and off-balance movement. The company returns to Portland for three performances, Thursday, March 6 through Saturday, March 8.

White Bird Uncaged

Petronio dancers return with latest work

White Bird Uncaged presents the return of the world-acclaimed Stephen Petronio Company, Thursday through Saturday, March 6-8, at the Newmark Theatre, downtown, with their newest work "Like Lazarus Did."

Known for his burning, high-speed, off-balance movement, Stephen Petronio has long been admired for his dynamic collaborations with iconic musicians like Laurie Anderson, Lou Reed, Nick Cave and Rufus Wainwright as well as visual artists Cindy Sherman and Anish Kapoor, among many others.

This will be the sixth time that White Bird has presented this choreographer's work, more than any other in White Bird's 16-year history.

Portland's own Pacific Youth Choir will also perform, singing an original score based on American slave songs by Son Lux, NPR's "Best New Artist" of 2008. The work also features a hanging sculptural installation by celebrated visual artist Janine Antoni.

Tickets are $30 for adults and $20 for students and seniors. Visit whitebird.org or the Portland's 5 Box Office, 1111 S.W. Broadway for no added fees.
