In Loving Memory

Her career got focused during her enrollment in a Portland Community College business education course which led to a position in the Multnomah County Courthouse for the Oregon Judicial Department in 1974. Her duties consisted of several positions during her 30 years of employment and she earned several awards. In 2003, she retired from the position of Court Operations Specialist.

Though she had no children of her own, she was an encourager to single mothers in the church, an advocate of children's education, and a provider of educational funds for children in her family.

Sister Janet enjoyed finding and collecting bargains. One of her favorite pastimes was watching movies, especially shows about courthouse drama.

Her parents and her beloved sisters, Betty E. Robinson and Mary Kinkle preceded her in death and welcomed her into her eternal rest. She is survived by a caring and loving family; nieces Diane Kinkle and Candace Skinner; nephews Robert Kinkle, Trevor Kinkle, Jeffery Brown, Maurice Brown and Robert (Novelette) Brown.

Services will be held on Saturday, April 19 at Maranatha Church, 4222 N.E. 12th Ave. Arrangements are under the direction of Caldwell's, Hennessey, Goetsch & McGee Funeral Home.
