LOCAL NEWS

Crash Victims Were Best Friends Tributes pour in for Pacific University students

Two Pacific University students who were killed in a car crash are being remembered for their friendship and for starting a Black Student Union on the university's Forest Grove campus. 18-year-old Kiden Dilla and 19-year-old Ayan Osman were struck at the intersection of Oregon 47 and Verboort Road by a box truck the

Blazer Flash Mob for Playoff Start!

This Saturday, the Lloyd Center Mall will literally be seeing red as fans gather to send off the Portland Trail Blazers to the playoffs. Social entrepreneur Andre Miller is organizing the "Red Out" flash mob.

The Trail Blazers will start the playoffs with its first two games on the road to face the Houston Rockets in best of seven series. The dates of the contests were not set at press time Tuesday.

Fans of all ages are welcome and encouraged to come decked in their favorite Blazers gear for Saturday's Cheer Mob which will begin at 3 p.m. at the Lloyd Center Mall Skating Rink. The happenings will be filmed.

Upcoming artist Yung Jordan will perform his Blazers' anthem "Welcome to Rip City" for the crowd.

Miller, who also fronts a Blazer fan page is offering special discounts on his Blazer Gang apparel for the occasion. You can head to blazergangapparel.com or the Lloyd Center Mall for more information.

'Whitelandia' Film on Racism Needs Support

A full length documentary exploring the long history of racism and discrimination against black people in Oregon has launched a campaign for donations to help make the movie a success.

The film 'Whitelandia' is in production for a 2015 release.

The Northwest Film Center and Oregon Assembly for Black Affairs have partnered with the film's producers to make the movie. A Kickstarter website campaign to raise money for production costs was launched last week with a goal of raising $20,000 by May 7.

Community members are asked to contribute by visiting kickstarter.com/projects/whitelandia.
