A squadron of British Bobbies faces their fear of pirates no matter how inept and harmless said pirates might be. The witty Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, 'The Pirates of Penzance,' opens at the Keller Auditorium on Friday, May 9 with performances continuing through Saturday, May 17.

The Pirates of Penzance

Portland Opera concludes its current season with Gilbert & Sullivan's witty operetta "The Pirates of Penzance," Portland Opera's first collaboration with the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

The production reimagines the Oregon Shakespeare Festival's hit 2011 production, called "an effortlessly freewheeling romp" by the Oregonian.

"Pirates of Penzance" opens Friday, May 9 at Keller Auditorium, with additional performances on Sunday, May 11 (matinee); Thursday, May 15; and Saturday, May 17. Tickets can be purchased by phone or in person from the Portland Opera Box Office, 503-241-1802; The Hampton Opera Center, 211 S.E. Caruthers St.; or online at portlandopera.org.
