Portland's World Forestry Center Discovery Museum celebrates the life and art of Theodor Seuss Geisel, better known as Dr. Seuss, with a special exhibit, opening Saturday, May 24.

The Art of Dr. Seuss

The World Forestry Center Discovery Museum is celebrating the life and art of Theodor Seuss Geisel with a new exhibit that chronicles his life and career with a focus on the common artistic links throughout his nearly 70 years of creativity.

See Seuss's classic illustration art from The Cat in the Hat, Green Eggs and Ham, Yertle the Turtle, and The Lorax, as well as early magazine covers, advertising pieces, war commentary, his whimsical unorthodox taxidermy, and an amazing assortment of larger-than-life bronze sculptures!

"The Art of Dr. Seuss" exhibition is organized by Chase Art Companies with the permission of Dr. Seuss Enterprises.

A sneak preview of the show will be held Thursday, May 22, during the Forestry Center's Museum by Moonlight special event with tickets available for ages 21 and older. The show opens to the public and all ages on Saturday, May 24 and continues through Aug. 17. For more information, visit worldforestry.org.

Good in the Hood Call Out

Plans are underway for the annual Good in the Hood celebration with the recruitment of marketplace vendors as well as parade admissions.

Good in the Hood will be held the weekend of June 27-29 at Lilis Albina Park at North Flint Avenue and Russell Street, drawing folks to a festival celebrating north and northeast Portland neighborhoods with food and music, including jazz, blues, hip hop and soul.

In addition, the festival is a kid-friendly event with a Good in the Hood "Kids Space."

Good in the Hood President Shawn Penney says there are many food and marketplace vendor opportunities as well as parade admissions. To find out how you can participate, call Penney at 503-756-1926.

In addition, a silent auction and fundraiser with music, family, friends and raffles to support the event will be held on Saturday, June 21 at 6 p.m. at Marriott Courtyard, 435 N.E. Wasco. Admission is $15.
