Cuisines of China

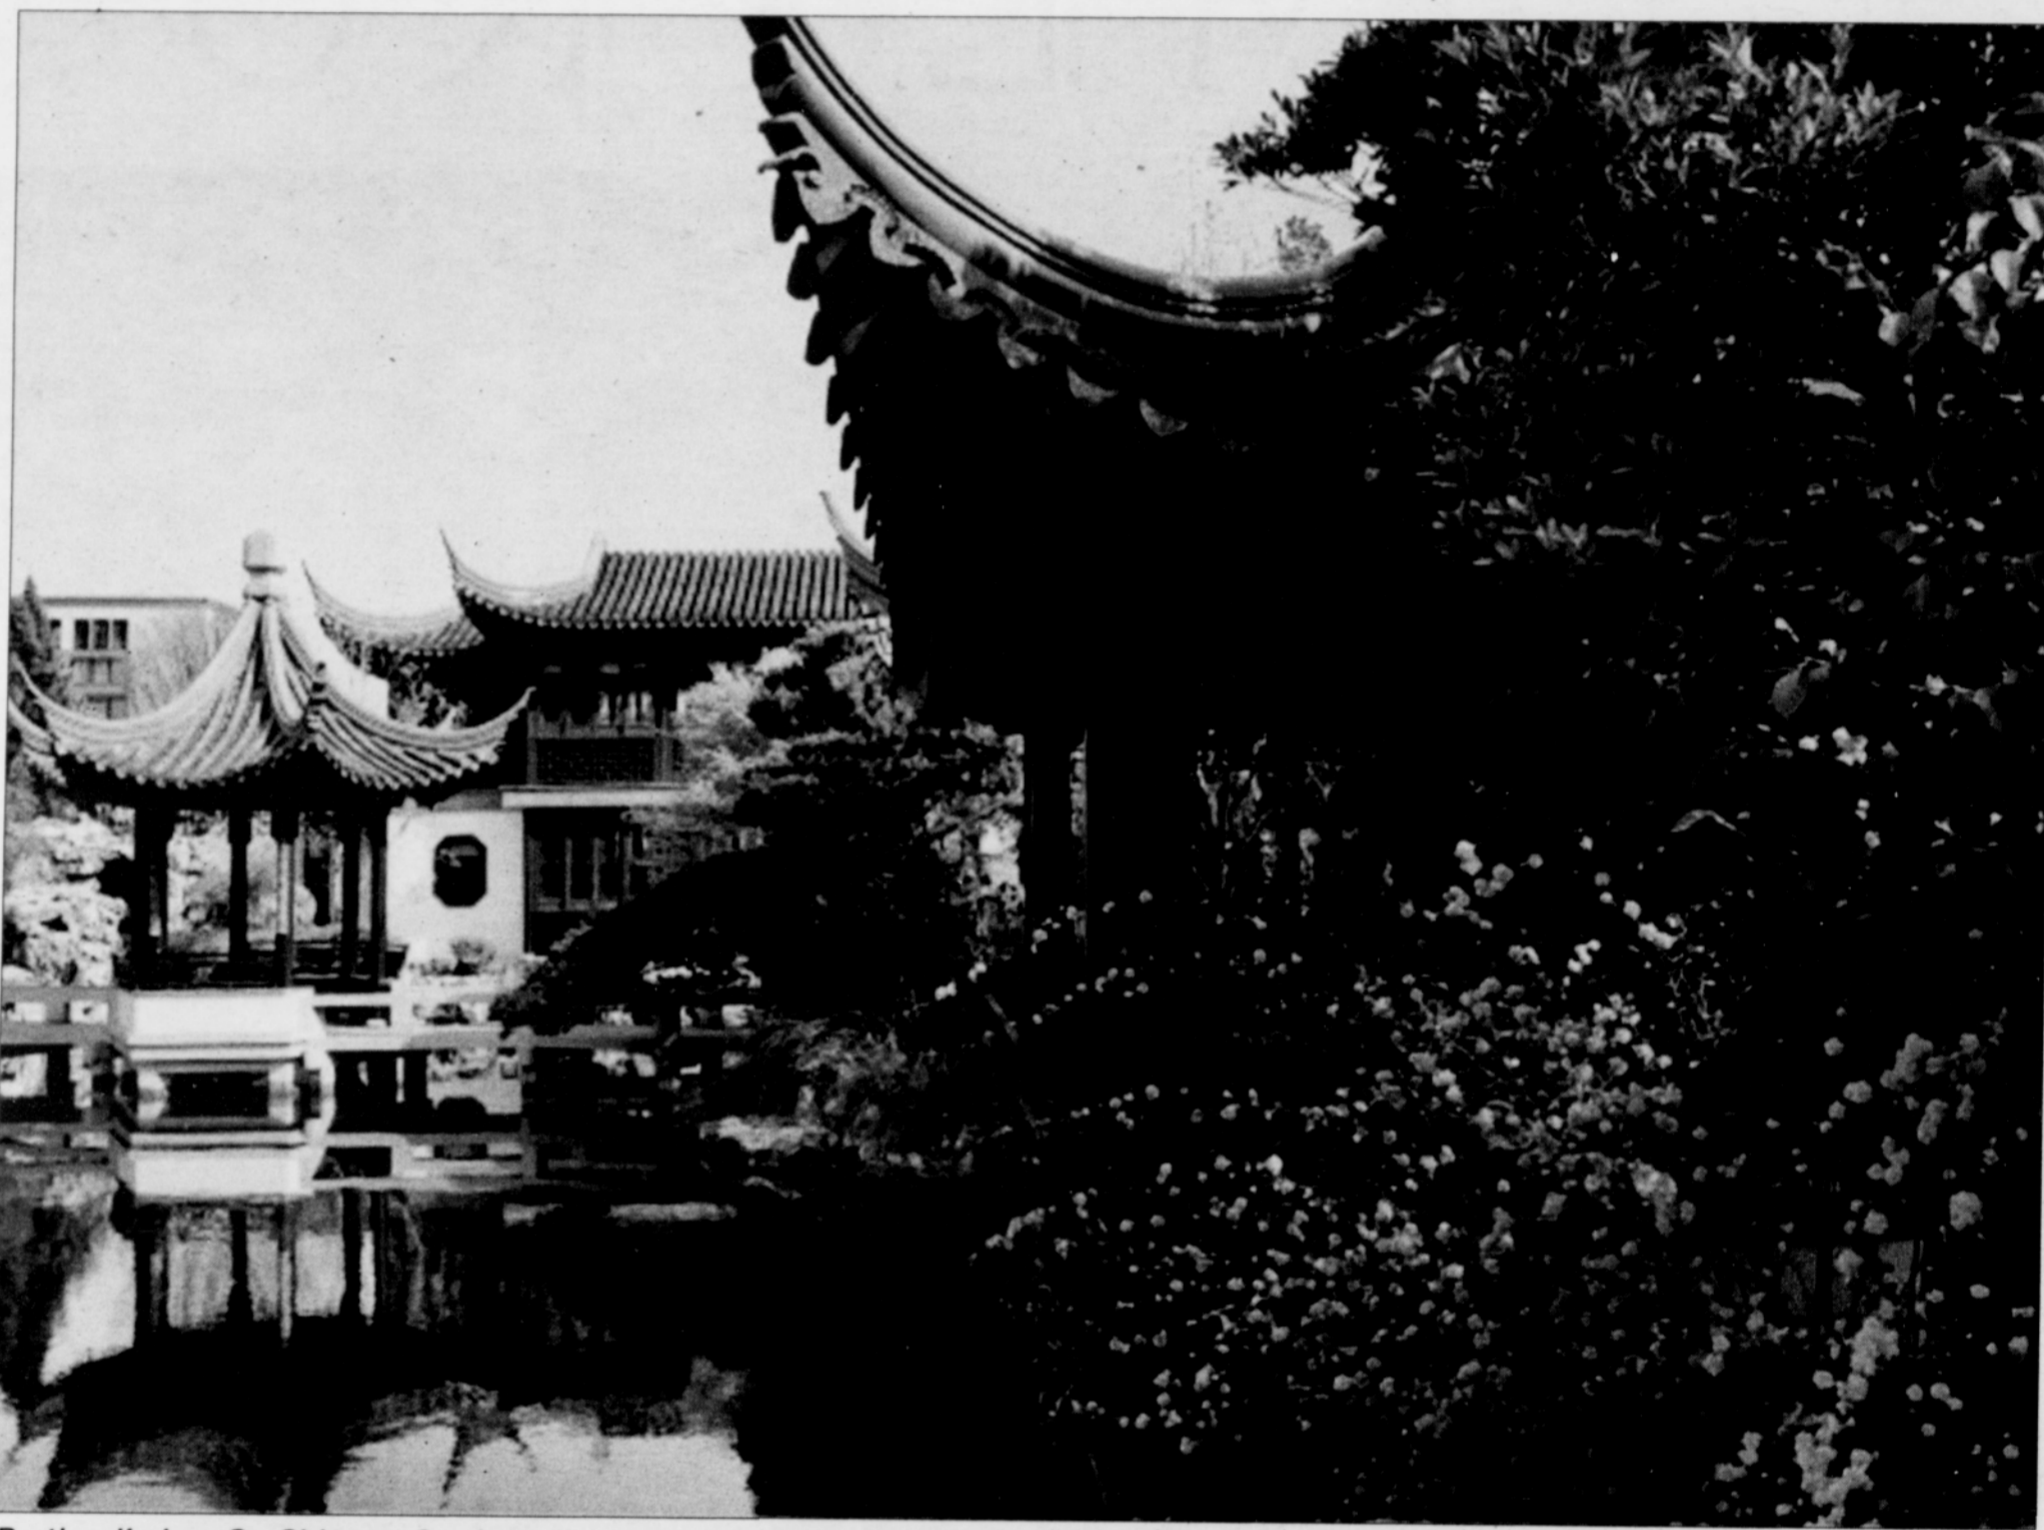

Indulge all your senses at the Lan Su Chinese Garden with Cuisines of China, a month long celebration of China's vast culinary experience.

Visitors to the downtown landmark will feel the stones underfoot, see and smell the beauty of flowering blossoms, hear the rush of a waterfall and savor the flavors of 14 local Chinese restaurants as they provide demonstrations and tastes of traditional Chinese dishes.

With talks and tastes every Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at noon, 14 Chinese restaurants, chefs and Chinese food experts will guide your taste buds on a tour of Chinese delights. Topics include the history and art of dumplings, pot stickers, Lanzhou-style noodle pulling, dim sum, marbled tea eggs and the history of Szechuan cuisine.

Additionally, from 1-3 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday, test your chopstick skills with the "Chopstick Challenge," an opportunity to see how well you truly can do with a pair of chopsticks.

For more information, visit lansugarden.org.

Portland's Lan Su Chinese Garden will have you immersing yourself in the taste and aroma of Chinese food and let you test your chopstick skills with Cuisines of China, the garden's special exhibits theme for the month of June.

Lizzie Borden Took an Ax, Gave Her Mother 40 Whacks – Mary Kate Morrissey plays Lizzie Borden in Portland Center Stage's upcoming production of Lizzie - a rock musical about the legendary ax murderer.

Lizzie Borden Rock Musical

A rock-show retelling of the bloody legend of America's favorite ax-wielding double-murderess and Victorian hometown girl. Lizzie Borden, has taken over the Main Stage at the Gerding Theater at the Armory. The production is now playing through Sunday, June 29.

Borden who became fodder for jump rope rhymes and TV movies of the week, was a Massachusetts woman who was acquitted in 1892 of the ax murders of her father and stepmother, and lived the rest of her life as American's first infamous tabloid star. But did she really do it? And if so, how?

The production features a live rock band, along with theatrical effects such as fake blood and fog. Lizzie contains mature content, strong language and sexuality; It is recommended for ages 16+.

Tickets can be purchased at pcs.org or by calling 503-445-3700.
