mative for the league and put us on a path for success in the future," said Lorenzo Poe, Urban League of Portland board chair.

"We are pleased that he will be a part of our efforts to identify the next CEO of the organization and we look forward to the time when we can thank Michael for his service and his leadership. For now, we agree with his assessment that there is still much to be done and he and the staff remain focused and committed to carry this work forward," Poe said.

Established in 1945, the Urban League of Portland is one of the oldest African American service, civil rights and advocacy organizations in the area.
