Arts & ENTERTAINMENT

Stephanie Brockway carved 'Claire' from a found wood piece.

July Show Focuses on Children

"Nursery Rhymes, Children's Stories, Games and Toys," is the theme for July at Guardino Gallery, 2939 N.E. Alberta St.

Works by oil painter Jill McVarish will be featured, along with the creations of four sculptors, James C. Bassett (wood and metal games), Stephanie Brockway (carved wood), Steve Eichenberger (ceramic sculpture) and Wayne Haack (kinetic toys).

In the gallery's feature area will be works by Gesine Kratzner whose background in animation definitely shows in her sculptural work. By employing a variety of sculpting materials, Kratzner gives her creatures personalities that are distinct and alive, similar to the way she would think about an animated character.

'A is for Archer Who Shot at a Frog,' the whimsical title given to Jill McVarish's oil on burlap painting.
