Impressive Fireworks Show

July 4th at Fort Vancouver has something for everyone

The annual Independence Day at Fort Vancouver celebration presented by Bank of America is taking place on Friday, July 4th at the Fort Vancouver National Site. Families will find a full schedule of activities, culminating with an impressive fireworks show. The event is produced by the nonprofit Fort Vancouver National Trust.

Fort Vancouver has a 50 year history of providing the community with an exceptional fireworks display. Using state of the art fireworks synchronized to music, the show will once again be launched from Pearson Air Field, providing attendees an exciting fireworks show.

Featuring live music, games, entertainment, food and more, the daylong event has something fun for everyone. It all begins Friday, July 4, with gates opening at 8 a.m. Entertainment kicks-off at noon, the Kids'

Patriotic Parade presented by Fred Meyer begins at 4 p.m. and the spectacular fireworks show launches at 10:05 p.m.

The Vancouver Toyota Main Stage will feature a wide variety of local and regionally recognized entertainers, including New Social Order and Hit Machine.

General admission is $5 in advance and $7 at the gate for those 13 and over. Kids 12 and under are free. Purchase tickets online at fortvan.org/fourth, or at any Southwest Washington Fred Meyer location.
