'Nervling,' a rock band out of Germany that won the John Lennon Talent Award, will perform an all-ages concert to help benefit local music scholarships on Saturday, July 26 at 3 p.m. at the Star Theater, 13 N.W. Sixth Ave.

'Rock On' Portland Benefit

An all-ages concert to benefit music scholarships will introduce the group "Nervling," an innovative folk and rock band from Germany and winners of the 2012 John Lennon Talent Award to Portland.

Hosted by Code7, a band of teachers and parents from the Portland School of Rock, the concert will be held Saturday, July 26 at 3 p.m. at the Star Theater, 13 N.W. Sixth Ave.

Admission is $10 at the door. A portion of the profits will be given to Portland Rock On With Us, a local organization offering grants to music students in Portland

Black Captain America Unveiled

(AP)- The new Captain America will be an African American.

Marvel Comics' chief creative officer Joe Quesada says superhero Sam "The Falcon" Wilson will take over as the patriotic Avenger in an upcoming installment of the long-running comic book series.

He made the announcement July 16 during an appearance on Comedy Central's "The Colbert Report."

Wilson first appeared as winged superhero Falcon in 1969 and was one of comics' first African-American superheroes.

The change will come this November in "All-New Captain America" No. 1.

The character was recently portrayed by actor Anthony Mackie in the film "Captain America: The Winter Soldier."

Marvel executive editor Tom Brevoort says former Captain America Steve Rogers will be a mentor.
