A multicultural festival of free family fun draws people of all ages to Beaverton. This year's 'Party in the Park,' sponsored by Tualatin Hills Parks and Recreation, will be held Saturday, July 26 at the Howard M. Terpenning Recreation Complex, 15707 S.W. Walker Rd.

Multicultural Party in the Park

It's "Party in the Park," the Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District's largest community event of the year. The 9th annual extravaganza will happen Saturday, July 26, at the Howard M. Terpenning Recreation Complex, 15707 SW Walker Road, Beaverton.

Most activities will run from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. That includes the Beaverton International Celebration with music, dance, art, crafts, food, traditional dress and ceremonies representing many of the diverse ethnic populations that make up the Beaverton area.

Other attractions will include a car show, family triathlon, a Beaverton Police K-9 Unit demonstration, giant inflatables, climbing walls, arts and crafts, and face painting as well as swimming, sports, a tennis clinic and more.

"Party in the Park is an active event that enables our residents to enjoy healthy, fun and free activities while connecting with their community," said Doug Menke of the Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation district.
