RACC announces arts education job opportunities

PORTLAND, ORE - The Right Brain Initiative, an arts integration program of the Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC) in partnership with Young Audiences of Oregon and Southwest Washington, is hiring staff and contractors. Current job openings include:

- Teaching Artists
- Arts Integration Coach
- Program Assistant

Additional positions will become available throughout the summer, and complete descriptions will be posted on The Right Brain Initiative's website at TheRightBrainInitiative.org/join-the-team. Numerous volunteer opportunities are also listed at this site.

The Right Brain Initiative is a community partnership working to transform learning for all children through the arts, creativity, innovation and whole-brain thinking. Right Brain achieves this goal by connecting classroom teachers with local artists in a variety of arts disciplines, and by helping them build creative learning experiences that directly connect to core subjects including language arts, social studies, science and math. In 2014-15 the Initiative will serve nearly 20,000 students, Kindergarten through 8th grade, across seven school districts in Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington Counties.

RACC and Young Audiences value diversity, equity, and inclusivity, and The Right Brain Initiative is committed to ensuring that its staff and artists reflect the diversity of the students we serve. We encourage applications from candidates who can contribute to the diversity of our workforce, and artists working in culturally specific art forms.

These and other local job opportunities in the arts are also listed on RACC's comprehensive jobs board at racc.org/resources/jobs.

Kick It Up! Street Fair

"Kick it Up!" is the theme for a North Killingsworth street fair on Saturday, Aug. 2 featuring a 3-on-3 soccer tournament to celebrate the Major League Soccer All-Star game happening in Portland the following Wednesday.

The annual street fair will take place between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. between Gay and Concord Streets on North Killingsworth. Four live bands, an ever-popular dog costume contest, classic car show, knit-along, food, vendors and special offers and discounts at participating Overlook Village businesses are all part of the celebration.

"Having the All-Star soccer game in Portland is a great opportunity to capture some of that excitement and call attention to our often overlooked neighborhood and our great group of businesses," explains Matt Lagasse, owner of Blend Coffee and co-president of the of the Overlook Village Business Association, sponsors of the street fair.

Three-person teams of soccer players of all skill levels and ages must pre-register online at overlookvillagepdx.com. The soccer games will be held between Concord and Denver on North Killingsworth which will be closed to traffic that day.
