Breaking<sup>a</sup> Cycle<sup>of</sup> Addiction

On Wednesday, Aug. 20 at 7 p.m., the Northwest Film Center presents "Crazywater," the new documentary by Whitehorse, Yukon-based director Dennis Allen. His raw and honest exploration of substance abuse among First Nations communities begins in his own childhood, when, according to him, "people were drinking hairspray, they were drinking solvents. I understand it too, because I'm an alcoholic?" Plays at Whitsell Auditorium in the Portland Art Museum. Admission is $9.

Clackamas Repertory Musical

Rodgers and Hammerstein's classic musical 'Carousel,' produced by the Clackamas Repertory Theater and starring Dru Rutledge and Michael Mitchell is now playing through Sunday, Aug. 24 at the Osterman Theatre at Clackamas Community College in Oregon City. For tickets, call 503-594-6047 or visit clackamasrep.org.

Band Shell Hosts Free Concert

The Vancouver Symphony invites you to bring your lawn chair, blanket and picnic basket for a rousing and family-friendly free outdoor concert in downtown Vancouver's Esther Short Park band shell on Thursday, Aug. 14 from 6 p.m. to 8 pm.

The "Magic of Movie Music" concert will feature some of the most memorable movie music ever, produced and hosted by All Classical's Edmund Stone and the 70+ member orchestra will be conducted by Paul Kim of the Oregon Symphony.

Among the music being featured will be

John Williams' Star Wars, Raiders of the Lost Ark and Harry Potter; James Horner's Apollo 13; Hans Zimmer's Gladiator; Henry Mancini's Pink Panther theme; Richard Wagner's Ride of the Valkyries; and Camille Saint-Saëns' Danse Macabre.

Has your child been itching to play a musical instrument? Prior to the concert, Beacock Music will create a musical instrument "petting zoo" where children of all ages can try out musical instruments from violins to trumpets under the expert supervision of professional musicians.
