

'Shine' Brings Home a Trophy

Portland's Inner City Shine, a semi-pro 8-man football team, won a national championship over the weekend in Las Vegas. The team was undefeated at 7-0 in league play. Founded by Portland natives David and Julian Littleton as an alternative to gangs, they say the opportunity to travel afforded these young adults an experience akin to college expanding their view of life outside of the city.

The Week in Review

Fatal Pedestrian Crash

Investigators are saying an 84-year-old woman driving westbound on Southeast Division Street Monday veered across the eastbound lanes and drove up onto the sidewalk killing a pedestrian, identified as James Dalton Porter, 55. Police say the woman may have suffered a "medical event" prior to the crash.

Rapper Visits Ferguson

Platinum rap artist J. Cole flew out to Ferguson, Mo. Sunday where heavily armed police continue to roam in the wake of protests over the death of teenager Michael Brown who was killed Aug. 9 in a police shooting. During his visit the artist spent hours walking amongst throngs of protestors, listening and sharing his thoughts.

Longtime SNL Announcer Dies

For nearly four decades, Don Pardo's iconic voice would introduce the lineups on NBC's "Saturday Night Live." On Tuesday, he died at the age of 96. Pardo retired from NBC in 2004; he is survived by five children.

Free MAX Rides Monday

After a host of disruptions on MAX commuter trains due to construction at the Lloyd Center area in recent days and a train derailment on Friday, TriMet offered free rides on all MAX light rail lines Monday.

Journalist Killed by Jihadists

The Sunni jihadists group Islamic State Tuesday claimed to have executed American journalist James Wright Foley, who had gone missing in Syria in November 2012. Foley was killed in an apparent beheading posted online, in retaliation for recent American air strikes on ISIS forces in Iraq.

WE STAND UP FOR WHAT WE BELIEVE IN!

OUR FUTURE

It is our primary goal as a labor union to better the lives of all people working in the building trades through advocacy, civil demonstration, and the long-held belief that workers deserve a "family wage" – fair pay for an honest day's work.

OUR FAMILIES & OUR COMMUNITIES

A family wage, and the benefits that go with it, not only strengthens families, but also allows our communities to become stronger, more cohesive, and more responsive to their citizens' needs. Our ongoing efforts to establish Area Standard wages and benefits knows no boundaries of race, creed, color, gender, beliefs, or country of origin.

Pacific Northwest
Regional Council of CARPENTERS

www.nwcarpenters.org

The Portland Observer Established 1970

USPS 959-680

4747 NE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd., Portland, OR 97211

PUBLISHER: Mark Washington, Sr.

EDITOR: Michael Leighton

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: Rakeem Washington

CREATIVE DIRECTOR: Paul Neufeldt

OFFICE MANAGER/CLASSIFIEDS: Lucinda Baldwin

ADVERTISING MANAGER: Leonard Latin

REPORTER/PHOTOGRAPHER: Donovan M. Smith

The Portland Observer welcomes freelance submissions. Manuscripts and photographs should be clearly labeled and will be returned if accompanied by a self addressed envelope. All created design display ads become the sole property of the newspaper and cannot be used in other publications or personal usage without the written consent of the general manager, unless the client has purchased the composition of such ad. © 2008 THE PORTLAND OBSERVER. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED, REPRODUCTION IN WHOLE OR IN PART WITHOUT PERMISSION IS PROHIBITED. The Portland Observer—Oregon's Oldest Multicultural Publication—is a member of the National Newspaper Association—Founded in 1885, and The National Advertising Representative Amalgamated Publishers, Inc, New York, NY, and The West Coast Black Publishers Association

CALL 503-288-0033 . FAX 503-288-0015

news@portlandobserver.com

ads@portlandobserver.com

subscription@portlandobserver.com

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Portland Observer, PO Box 3137, Portland, OR 97208