A family-friendly bike ride will once again be a main attraction when Beaverton hosts a "Bike Beaverton" celebration Sunday, Sept. 7 at City Park, located at Southwest Fifth Street and Hall Boulevard.

Family Bike Rides and Safety Event

A family-friendly bike ride, bike safety rodeo and obstacle course will be part of the fun when the city of Beaverton's Bicycle Advisory Committee hosts the seventh annual Bike Beaverton event starting at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 7 at City Park on Southwest Fifth Street at Hall Boulevard.

The Beaverton Police Department will lead the bicycle obstacle course for kids at 1 p.m. The family-friendly bike ride will immediately follow at 2 p.m. The finale of the event will feature a free ice cream social.

All ride participants are required to wear a helmet and complete a participation waiver form. The NW Bicycle Safety Council will inspect and/or adjust helmets as well as replace damaged helmets prior to the ride.

Brew Festival at Leftbank

The world's rarest beers are coming to Portland for a brew fest to benefit New Avenues for Youth, a non-profit group committed to helping foster, at-risk and homeless youth gain the life skills necessary to lead healthy, independent lives and avoid lifelong homelessness.

Brews for New Avenues, the third annual event, will be held Saturday, Sept. 6 from 5 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. at the Leftbank Annex, 101 N. Weidler St. Admission for the 21 and older festival and auction is $10.

"Across the country and abroad, we are overwhelmed by the generosity of breweries and private collectors in championing Brews for New Avenues. The beer community's enthusiastic participation in securing special kegs and rare bottlings, and all for charity, makes Brews a truly unique event," said Jeremy Herrig of New Avenues for Youth's ambassador board.
