Randy Starr and the Players will perform for the annual Summer in September Jambalaya Festival and Barbecue Saturday, Sept. 6 at Dawson Park. A fundraiser for Meals on Wheels People, the proceeds will provide hot meals to seniors served by the Martin Luther King Jr. Center in northeast Portland.

Jambalaya Festival at Dawson Park

Saturday feast to include
live entertainment

The Meals on Wheels People Martin Luther King Jr. Center will host the ninth annual Summer in September Jambalaya Festival and Barbeque on Saturday, Sept. 6, from noon to 6 p.m. at Dawson Park in north Portland. Live musical entertainment will feature Randy Starr & The Players as well as No Limit.

The culinary team for this event is headed by Teletha Benjamin, past Meals on Wheels People board member, and Meals on Wheels People Executive Director Joan Smith, both of whom have connections to southern Louisiana.

The pair will be using a traditional Creole-style jambalaya recipe passed down in Teletha's family. Proceeds from the event will provide hot meals to seniors served by the Martin Luther King Jr. Center in northeast Portland.

"The daily menu at the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center has evolved to include a variety of soul food entrées," said Center Manager David Lomax. "The food has received such good reviews that we decided to make it available to the general public for one special night. We guarantee a sumptuous feast to delight the tastebuds!"

The menu includes authentic Creole-style jambalaya (a non-seafood version is available) or BBQ Ribs, along with bread, salad, beverage and dessert. Cost is $15 for adults or $45 for a family ticket for four. Tickets are available at mealsonwheelspeople.org, from the center or at the event. Meals are available for take-out.
