Aquifer Adventure is a free pirate-themed groundwater treasure hunt on the Columbia Slough sponsored by the Portland Water Bureau and the Columbia Slough Watershed Council. The event returns Saturday, Sept. 13 from noon to 4 p.m.

Aquifer Treasure Hunt Saturday

What do pirates and groundwater have in common? This question is asked every year at Aquifer Adventure, a family festival that celebrates both pirates and an important drinking water resource.

Co-sponsored by the Portland Water Bureau and the Columbia Slough Watershed Council, Aquifer Adventure will be held on Saturday, Sept. 13, from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Portland Water Bureau Canoe Launch, located at Northeast 166th Avenue at Airport Way.

Activities include a treasure hunt and hands-on activities for all ages. Free children's t-shirts will be available while supplies last. Participants can enjoy the wooded trail along the Columbia Slough before joining a canoeing tour of the slough.

This annual event focuses on groundwater and water conservation, and provides groundwater protection tips that can be implemented at home. All activities are free with the exception of food items for purchase. Pirate dress, pirate lingo, and pirate swagger are highly encouraged.
