Celebrity and Social Change

Diversity lectures at Warner Pacific

Acclaimed actor and positive role model Hill Harper and well-known author, commentator, and social critic Dr. Tricia Rose are coming to Warner Pacific College in southeast Portland as part of a compelling, two-part public event entitled, "Celebrity and Social Change."

"An Evening with Hill Harper" featuring Hill Harper will take place Saturday, Oct. 18, at 7 p.m. Harper, an award-winning actor, bestselling author, and philanthropist, starred on the CBS television drama, CSI: NY from 2004 to 2013; and last year joined the USA Network spy drama, Covert Affairs.

"Social Change and Popular Culture" a lecture by Dr. Tricia Rose will take place Saturday, Oct. 25 at 7 p.m.

Both events serve as the centerpiece of the Warner Pacific's third annual Diversity Lecture Series and take place in McGuire Auditorium, 2219 SE 68th Ave. Admission is free and no RSVP is required.

"I am excited to welcome some of America's most well respected and thought-provoking leaders to Warner Pacific College as we discuss this year's topic of celebrity and social change," said Dr. Daymond Glenn, vice president for Community Life and Chief Diversity Officer at Warner Pacific College. "Through collaborations such as these, we believe our students and neighbors will gain a deeper knowledge on some of the important socio-cultural issues that disproportionately exists in urban spaces and how we negotiate and make sense of them."
