'Frozen' Family Halloween Fest

Warner Pacific College hosts its annual free Fall Family Festival on Thursday, Oct. 30. Families are encouraged to come with their kids in costume so that they can trick-or-treat in a safe environment. This year's theme is "Frozen," after the wildly popular Disney movie of the same name.

Festivities will include games, face painting, a picture booth, costume contest, live music, a haunted house, refreshments, and most importantly, plenty of Halloween candy. Events begin at 6 p.m., starting with several events setting up in Warner Pacific's Egtvedt Hall.

The haunted house will be in the Student Union building from 6 to 8 p.m. A live concert, featuring the Frozen soundtrack, along with a costume contest, will go from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.
