Northwest Dance presents weekend of original works

Be prepared to be surprised, amazed and energized. A world-class contemporary dance company from Portland kicks off its 11th season with three up-and-coming, award-winning choreographic voices.

"New, Now and Wow!" is the title of the Northwest Dance Project's all-premiere performances kicking off this week and featuring three new works from dance makers of tomorrow, Jiri Pokorny of the Czech Republic, Yin Yue of China and New York City and Minh Tran of Portland.

The performances are scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23-25, at 7:30 p.m. at Lincoln Performance Hall on the Portland State University campus, 1620 S.W. Park Ave.

Tickets start at $29. For information, visit nwdanceproject.org or call 503-828-8285.

Northwest Dance was founded by Sarah Slipper in 2004 with the mission of establishing a world-class contemporary dance company in Portland that only performs original works. Over 160 works have been created and premiered in Portland by the group to date.
