Obituaries

In Loving Memory Ester Neda West

Funeral services for Ester Neda West will be held Thursday, Oct. 30 at 11 a.m. at Emmanuel Temple Church, 1033 N. Sumner St. Viewing is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 29 at Terry Funeral Home, 2337 N. Williams Ave., from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. for family, and 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. for the public.

She was born on Dec. 31, 1933 in Linden, Texas, the last of nine children born to the union of the late Lee McDowell and Mrs. Estella Crow McDowell. Four brothers and two sisters preceded her in death along with her husband.

As a child, she united with the Sunrise Baptist Church where she worshipped faithfully. And as a young lady, she attended Bishop College in Marshall, Texas; before moving to Portland in 1955. Ester was employed by the State of Oregon for over 30 years in various roles such as switchboard operator, receptionist, and foster care and family services agent. Among many of her passions were the Portland Trail Blazers, gardening, supporting both national and local Democratic causes, current events and shopping with her beloved friend Mrs. Katherine Jennings.

Ester accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior while attending the Church of the Living God C.W.F.F. She held many church positions such as president of women's charity work, financial secretary, board trustee and choir member; as well as other auxiliary offices. She wed into holy matrimony with Joe A. West and two children were born, Randy E. West and Daniel E. West.

Ester was a sweet, loving, giving mother and grandmother who treasured spending time with her family. She leaves to cherish her memory, her sons, a host of nephews and nieces, and her grandchildren, Joseph West, Randy West Jr., Jalen West, Malia Thomas, Damon Thomas, Joseph West Jr., and JaNyah West.

In Fond Memory

Karl Rae Armstrong III

Karl Rae Armstrong III was born on Jan. 7, 1996 to Lanida Minnieweather and Karl Rae Armstrong Jr.

He was a delightful happy-go-lucky individual from the day he entered this world. He was so ready to experience this thing we call life. He started walking and talking at seven months old.

He loved all of his family. He had an unbreakable bond with his three brothers and two sisters. He had that same bond with his cousins and considered some of them to be like brothers. He also held his friends near and dear. There weren't enough hours in the day for him to make sure everyone was doing fine.

Preceding him in heaven is his great grandmother Conelgia Minnieweather, great grandfather Walter Brandon, papa Reggie Watkins, uncle J.W. Minnieweather, and two cousins, YaShawnee Vaughn and Mijeni Edmonds.
