Oregon Ballet's Holiday Tradition

A holiday tradition, the Oregon Ballet Theatre presents George Balanchine's hugely popular version of The Nutcracker at the Keller Auditorium. Shows of this ode to joy classic are now playing through Saturday, Dec. 27. Eighty-one students from the company's official training ground, the School of Oregon Ballet Theatre, will perform the ballet's roles for children.

Introverted frogs are just a few of the creatures in 'Frogz,' a signature comedy for the whole family that has given Portland's Imago Theatre a worldwide audience.

Imago Theater's Inspired Fun

"Frogz," Imago Theater's signature work, returns from an international tour to play a holiday schedule on the theater company's home stage at 17 S.E. Eighth Ave.

Now playing through Jan. 4, the show packs a lot of family friendly entertainment with its introverted frogs, inhabited giant paper bags, acrobatic worms, competitive penguins and lively accordions, just a few of the creatures that have made this production a hit among audiences worldwide.

Tickets can be purchased by calling Imago at 503-231-9581 or TicketsWest at 503-224-8499. Recommended for ages 4 and older.
