Portland Parks and Recreation lifeguards undergo regular, certified training. During winter break, lifeguard and swim instructor training courses are offered to help fill more than 700 positions needed this summer in the city's swim facilities.

Aquatics Team Trains for Jobs

More than 700 positions, including lifeguards, swim instructors and water fitness instructors will be available this summer at Portland Parks and Recreation swim facilities.

Training courses for those interested in becoming a lifeguard and swim instructor are available during the Winter Break, Dec. 27-30. The positions offer wages from $9.75 to $13.25 per hour, a positive working environment, flexible hours, opportunity for advancement and an employee recognition program.

For more information about the training courses and employment opportunities or to request an employment application, call Portland Parks and Recreation Aquatics at 503-823-5130.
