

Jordan Pilot Burned Alive

Islamic State militants put to death a captured Jordanian fighter pilot by burning him alive in a cage, according to a video the group released Tuesday. The kingdom vowed a swift and lethal response to what it called a "barbaric" act.

Rapper Pleads Not Guilty

Rap mogul Marion "Suge" Knight pleaded not guilty Tuesday to charges of murder, attempted murder and hit-and-run after prosecutors say he ran over two men with his truck in a Compton, Calif. parking lot. After his court appearance, he was reportedly taken to the hospital, complaining of chest pains.

Burglars Raid Woodstock Laundry

East Precinct officers responded to Woodstock laundry early Monday morning after a truck backed in the building to break down walls and steal the change machine. Anyone with information is encouraged to call police at 503-823-3333 or email burglary@portlandoregon.gov.

The Weekⁱⁿ Review

Fritz Seeks 3rd Term

City Commissioner Amanda Fritz announced last week that the death of her husband in a car accident last summer has led a change of heart about running for re-election. Fritz says her late husband would have wanted her to use his life insurance policy to fund a campaign for a third term, and keep her campaign independent from lobbying or private interests.

Vancouver Motel Fined

The Washington Department of Labor and Industries has imposed a $112,450 fine on a Vancouver Motel 6 for repeatedly exposing workers to hypodermic needles while they cleaned rooms. The workers were also never given required training on the use of harsh chemical cleaners they were required to use.

Nod to $15 Minimum Wage

Portland Mayor Charlie Hales used his third annual "State of the City" address Friday to support a city $15 minimum wage for city workers. Hales also proposed tax credits for companies that hire people with criminal records.

Gang Shooting at Boss Hawg's

Early Monday morning Portland Police responded to Boss Hawg's Bar & Grill on Northeast 102nd Avenue on the report of a shooting. Two men were treated for non-lethal gunshot wounds. Police said they strongly suspect the attack was gang-related.

Discrimination Case Proceeds

A judge has determined that the Gresham bakery Sweet Cakes did discriminate against a same-sex couple in a civil rights case from last year. An administrative hearing scheduled for March will focus on damages for the couple.

Fire Captain Drives Drunk

A Portland Fire Captain has been convicted of driving drunk in a car crash that injured four people in Clatsop County. Captain Robert Hutchins is spending five days in jail for his latest conviction and faces disciplinary action from the city upon his return.

"My story is not just a story. It's a reflection of the world today."

With Forge presents the

UNTOLD STORIES

COLLECTION

We believe the greatest stories are the ones that are untold. This unique collection is made up of stories that provide us with a new way of seeing the world. It features stories of achievement, hope, and the strength of the human spirit. It's the stories we need to hear today.

With Forge and our partners, we're creating a new way of seeing the world.

Together we'll gather

The Portland Observer Established 1970

USPS 959-680

4747 NE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd., Portland, OR 97211

PUBLISHER: Mark Washington, Sr.

EDITOR: Michael Leighton

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: Rakeem Washington

OFFICE MANAGER/CLASSIFIEDS: Lucinda Baldwin

CREATIVE DIRECTOR: Paul Neufeldt

ADVERTISING MANAGER: Leonard Latin

REPORTER/PHOTOGRAPHER: Olivia Olivia

The Portland Observer welcomes freelance submissions. Manuscripts and photographs should be clearly labeled and will be returned if accompanied by a self-addressed envelope. All created design display ads become the sole property of the newspaper and cannot be used in other publications or personal usage without the written consent of the general manager, unless the client has purchased the composition of such ad. © 2008 THE PORTLAND OBSERVER. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. REPRODUCTION IN WHOLE OR IN PART WITHOUT PERMISSION IS PROHIBITED. The Portland Observer—Oregon's Oldest Multicultural Publication—is a member of the National Newspaper Association—Founded in 1885, and The National Advertising Representative Amalgamated Publishers, Inc, New York, NY, and The West Coast Black Publishers Association

CALL 503-288-0033 FAX 503-288-0015

news@portlandobserver.com

ads@portlandobserver.com

subscription@portlandobserver.com

POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Portland Observer, PO Box 3137, Portland, OR 97208