Authentic Mardi Gras Experience

Saturday ball rooted in New Orleans fun

The annual Mardi Gras Ball on Saturday, Feb. 14 at the Wonder Ballroom in northeast Portland will be graced with New Orleans musical royalty as R&B powerhouse Charmaine Neville joins the entertainment lineup.

The Portland group Mysti Krewe of Nimbus styles the event in the tradition of a New Orleans' social and pleasure club, bringing together native Oregonians and Gulf Coast transplants bonded by their love and appreciation of the culture, food, and music of New Orleans.

Neville will take the stage with native son and saxophonist Reggie Houston and Crescent City Connection. The daughter of saxophonist Charles Neville represents the 3rd generation of a dynasty that has kept faith with the musical traditions of Mardi Gras and New Orleans for more than seven decades.

Also on hand is Portland's own Too Loose Zydeco Band doing its part to keep the dance floor rocking.

For tickets and more information, visit the Wonder Ballroom box office or portlandmardigras.com.
