

Dr. Christopher Evans

HIV/AIDS in Black History

The impact of HIV and AIDS on the African American community will be the topic of a cultural competency lecture sponsored by the African American Employee Resource Group at Oregon Health Sciences University.

Dr. Christopher Evans will discuss his research on the epidemic which has disproportionately impacted the African American community. The free and open to the public talk takes place Thursday, Feb. 12 at 12:15 p.m. in the Biomedical Information Communication Center (BICC) gallery on the OHSU campus. You're invited to come early for a light lunch and networking.

Folks unable to join the Black History Month event can watch a live web stream of the talk through the OHSU network.

NAACP Celebrates 100 Years

Members of the NAACP will pay tribute to the civil rights group's centennial with a celebration of black life and culture.

The free and open to the public event will take place on Saturday, Feb. 21 at 11 a.m. at the Vancouver Housing Authority, 2500 Main St. For more information, call 360-750-1224.
