Thrilling Tap and the Blues

White Bird concludes its 17th season on Wednesday, April 29 at 7:30 p.m. at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall with "The Blues Project" featuring thrilling tap dance and live blues music with critically acclaimed tap company Dorrance Dance and award-winning blues singer and composer Toshi Reagon with her 5-piece band, BigLovely.

Signups for Summer Camp

The Portland Police Bureau, with the assistance of the Camp Rosenbaum Fund and other local partners, is now taking applications for its 3rd annual summer camp, June 15 to 19, for youth ages 8 to 14. More than 500 youth will participate each day during the week-long, all-day camps at Centennial High School.

Each camper receives mentor time with an officer, free lunch and quality sports training, including football, rugby, basketball, volleyball, soccer, tennis, boxing, wrestling, archery, fishing, bowling, golf, martial arts, baseball, hiking, journalism, photography and crazy science instruction.

The cost is $35 per child. A reduced rate of $20 is available for families who qualify for the free or reduced lunch program during the school year. Some bus transportation will be available from local schools.

The application can be found at portlandoregon.gov/police/summercamp. The camp is filled on a first come, first serve basis.
