Brown, Minaj Top BET Nominations

(AP) - Chris Brown and Nicki Minaj are the top contenders at the upcoming BET Award with six nominations each.

Brown will compete twice for video of the year with the hits "Loyal" and "New Flame" at the June 28 show in Los Angeles, BET announced Monday. Minaj is up for the top prize with her eye-popping "Anaconda" music video.

Beyonce and Lil Wayne follow with four nominations each. Beyonce's "7/11" also will compete for video of the year, along with Big Sean's "IDFWU" and Common and John Legend's Oscar-winning "Glory," from the film "Selma."

Brown's nominations include best male R&B/pop artist and viewers' choice award. He's nominated twice for best collaboration thanks to "Loyal," which features Lil Wayne and Tyga, and "New Flame," which co-stars Usher and Rick Ross.

Minaj is nominated for best female hip-hop artist, best group as a member of Young Money and best collaboration for the remix of "No Love" with August Alsina.

PSU Hosts Queer Indigenous Gathering

The Native American Student and Community Center of Portland State University welcome the community to a free gathering and workshop focusing on the history, art and state of LGBTQ issues in native communities.

Guest speakers for the Queer Indigenous Gathering will include Shilo George of the Cheyenne and Arapho nations, Adam Cardona of the Taino nation, and Asa Brings Plenty Wright of the Klamath and Modoc nations. Activist and writer Qwo-Li Driskill will deliver the keynote address.

The gathering will also include native art workshops facilitated by artists Kaila Farrell Smith. The event is being co-sponsored by the Portland Two-Spirit Society and takes place Tuesday June 2, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.
