Portland Farmers Market at the Square returns to Portland's Living Room each Monday through the summer months to Sept. 28.

Farmers Market at the Square

Local farmers, food producers and hot food vendors from all over the region fill Pioneer Courthouse Square, Portland's downtown living room, each Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. until Sept. 28. Sponsored by KINK, Portland Farmers Market at the Square opened this month to bring locally grown and produced items from dozens of vendors offering everything from berries and greens to flowers to baked goods. The abundant hot food options featuring locally sourced ingredients make this market a popular lunchtime destination. New to this season's market are fresh-baked French-style breads from Phillippe's Bread, authentic Southwest Chinese food from Money Bowl, tempting pastries from Decadent Creations and refreshing hard cider from Atlas Cider.
