The Meyer Memorial Trust (MMT) – originally called the Fred G. Meyer Charitable Trust – was founded in 1982 by Fred Meyer, who started the chain of Pacific Northwest-based retail stores that bears his name. Today, his values – to innovate, take risks, embrace diversity, adapt to changing circumstances, contribute to economic development/parity and to develop the power of the mind – continue to create and inform the culture of MMT, influencing its activities and the role that it plays in the region. The Trust's mission is to work with and invest in organizations, communities, ideas and efforts that contribute to a flourishing and equitable Oregon.

The Program Officer, Education will be a dynamic, engaged contributor to the overall efforts of the Trust, working to develop and implement new approaches to promote equity in the education sector. MMT's Strong and Equitable Education Portfolio will focus on disparities in the education system in Oregon, working within the context of early childhood, public K-12, higher education, and workforce training, and will identify and advocate for policy approaches and solutions to promote equity in both opportunities and outcomes. The Education portfolio will also engage the nonprofit voice in education, especially around advocacy for communities in which disparities are most pronounced, particularly around programmatic initiatives.

The Meyer Memorial Trust has retained The 360 Group of San Francisco to assist with this search. Please visit http://www.the360group.us/MMT\_POE\_PD.pdf to review the complete position description, including detailed application instructions. No calls, please. To be considered, The 360 Group must receive applications no later than 5:00pm Pacific time on Monday, September 14th, 2015.

Worksystems is seeking proposals from organizations to provide back-up network support, develop system documentation, and develop a Disaster Preparedness and Recovery Plan for the organization. The RFP will be posted on WSI's website: www.worksystems.org. Proposals are due noon, September 8, 2015. Worksystems, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer/program. leader and percussionist; and Billy Childs, one of the most acclaimed jazz pianists and composers of our time.

Local and regional bands will also be performing—including the acclaimed Seattle Jazz Singers, Flamenco and Brazilian Jazz band Caminhos Cruzados and Portland-based Go By Train, led by guitarist and bandleader Dan Balmer.

The festival also gives a nod to patriotism and United States military, with performances by the 56th Army Jazz Band from Joint Base Lewis-McCord and the Portland-based 234th Army Reserve Jazz Band.

With great music performed by world-class musicians, partnered with fine arts and crafts, 200 wines and delicious food, what more do you need to create a perfect weekend?"

Seating is general admission on the lawn. Blankets and low-back sand chairs are permitted. Tickets are $20 at the gate on Friday and $25 at the gate for Saturday and Sunday with a three day pass charging $55.

Discount advance tickets and all festival information is available at vancouverwine-jazz.com.

RELIGION

A catfish dinner with all the fixings comes to the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish at 2926 N. Williams Ave. on Friday, Aug. 21.

Church Fish Fry Friday

Immaculate Heart of Mary Church invites the community to an authentic old-fashioned fish fry dinner and fundraiser this Friday, Aug. 21.

The meal will be prepared by three of the finest church fish fryers in the Portland area and will feature catfish, hush puppies, coleslaw, red beans and rice, pound cake, coffee, tea, and punch. Baked fish will also be available to those who prefer the non-traditional.

Dinner will be serviced in two parts with take-out meals available from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., and dine-in options open from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for children under 10. All proceeds go to the Immaculate Heart ministries.

The church is located at 2926 N. Williams Ave. and tickets will be available at the door the night of the event and before hand by calling the parish office at 503-287-3724.
