Crowds outside the Union Gospel Mission, downtown, at last year's Operation Overcoat Street Fair.

Mission to Host Street Fair

'Operation Overcoat' for people in need

On Saturday, Sept. 26, Union Gospel Mission will be hosting "Operation Overcoat," a street fair providing clothing and food for people who are homeless or in need. This event is free and open to anyone in need.

The mission will be blocking off Northwest Third Avenue between Burnside and Couch Streets and blocking off Couch between Third and Fourth Avenues for the 15th annual event.

From 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., guests will have access to free clothing, boots, shoes, sleeping bags, blankets, hygiene items, and more. The barbeque meal will be hamburgers, hot dogs, potato salad, chips and soda. There will also be live music and free dental care in the Medical Teams International mobile dental van, free haircuts and free bibles.

New to the event this year, the PTSD Foundation of America will be on hand to provide information about counseling services for Veterans, and Care Oregon will be providing information about accessing health care as well as a free vaccination clinic.

At last year's Operation Overcoat, Union Gospel Mission provided over 6,000 articles of clothing and 1,345 barbeque meals.

To support Operation Overcoat, donations can be made online at ugmportland.org or call 503-274-4483. The biggest need for Operation Overcoat is new or gently used sleeping bags. The sleeping bags may be dropped off at 3 N.W. Third Ave. or purchased via Union Gospel Mission's Amazon Wish List at amzn.com/w/2RVAPKU3YPC9J.

Obituary

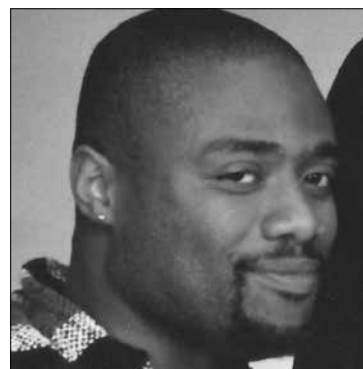

In Loving Memory

A memorial service for Byron DeWayne Watterson will be held Saturday, Sept. 26 at 1 p.m. at Bethel AME Church, 5828 N.E. Eighth Ave.

He was born April 19, 1970 to Charles R. Watterson and Judy Woods. Known by the family as DeWayne or Wayne, he decided to come into this world three months prior to his due date. He weighed three pounds and stopped breathing three times due to underdeveloped lungs. Despite the doctor's prognosis that he probably would not survive, God intervened. In adult life he survived a battle of tonsil cancer. Again God prevailed.

Although he was diagnosed with asthma, he led a life full of activities, playing baseball for the Peninsula Little League, football at Grant High School and coaching tee-ball for his son's team.

He enjoyed playing chess, dominoes and several card games.

Byron DeWayne Watterson

The San Francisco 49ers was his favorite time. He had a melodic voice which allowed him to participate in a singing group. He performed a solo at the wedding of his son's half-sister.

He accepted the Lord at an early age and was baptized at Bethel A.M.E. Church. He was in attendance at Bethel two weeks prior to being called home.

His brother and sister always looked up to him as a leader and as a positive role model. He was a loving father and provided financial and spiritual support to his only son, Brandon. He worked diligently at several jobs, most recently the US Postal Service.

An automobile accident resulted in DeWayne being called home on Aug. 19, 2015. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, William H. Woods Sr.

He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory, his parents Judy Wilson (Larry, stepfather) and Charles Watterson; son, Brandon Maxwell Watterson; brother, Raymond Watterson; sister, Myesha Daugherty (Thomas) and half-sister Katrice Wilson; grandmother, Cledie Woods; aunts, Phillis Pace, Daphne Barnes, and Margot Woods; uncles, William Woods Jr. (Saundra), Clarence Woods Sr. (Yvonne), Korla Woods, Leonardo Woods, and Frederico Rendon (Michelle); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family members and friends.
