Clothing Drive at AME Zion

Nydia Campbell has started a clothing ministry at First A.M.E. Zion Church, 4304 N. Vancouver Ave.

The opening day of collections will be Saturday, Oct. 31 and include a complimentary breakfast starting at 9 a.m. Subsequent donations will be accepted on the Saturday before the first Sunday of every month. Campbell's goal is to get people the help they need before the cold season.

"Thank you in advance for helping get the word out for this incredible ministry," she said.

Breast Cancer Awareness Program

The community is invited to participate in a breast cancer awareness program at the Community AME Zion Church, 3605 E. 13th St., in Vancouver, on Saturday, Oct. 24, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

"Worship in Pink" is an outreach of the Susan G. Komen for the Cure non-profit organization, and sponsored in part by Legacy Health, to educate and empower both men and women to take charge of their own breast health.

This year's theme will be "Man Enough to Wear Pink." The first 12 men will receive a special thank you gift for attending. The event's speakers will include Sandra Anderson, a nurse navigator at the Kearney Breast Center, and Rev. Levi Harris, a cancer survivor and pastor at the Pauline A.M.E. Zion Church in Salem.

For more information, contact Myra Webb at 360-977-0322.
