Norman Sylvester

Jazzy Halloween at Jimmy Mak's

Portland's beloved jazz ensemble, the Norman Sylvester Band, and special guests Lenanne Sylvester-Miller and Sarah Billings, will host a Halloween concert and costume party this Saturday.

"Vintage stars and famous icons" is the theme for the Halloween night fun at Jimmy Mak's Lounge, 221, N.W. 10th Ave., but all costumes are welcome and encouraged. You'll have the chance to have your costume featured on the Facebook event page the next day if you come with something memorable.

Tickets are $12 with dinner seating reservations or non-reserved tickets can be purchased at the door for $10, with doors opening at 5 p.m. The show starts at 8 p.m. and goes through midnight on Saturday. To reserve your tickets, visit tickettomato.com.

A screen shot from the 1925 silent picture horror classic, 'The Phantom of the Opera.' The movie will screen with a live orchestra accompaniment during a special Halloween event on Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Hollywood Theater.

The Phantom of the Opera

The Columbus River Theatre Organ Society and northeast Portland's Hollywood Theatre are bringing back the 1925 silent picture horror classic, "The Phantom of the Opera" this Halloween.

Causing murder and mayhem in an attempt to make the woman he loves a star, a deformed man becomes the "Phantom of the Opera." This original motion picture, based on the 1910 novel, stars Lon Chaney and is hailed as one of cinema's horror classics.

The Saturday 2 p.m. matinee will feature a live Unit Orchestra accompaniment with a special score created by Martin Ellis, playing the Beverly Ruth Nelson memorial organ.

Tickets are $10. Be sure to arrive early to enjoy the splendor and comfortable seating of the historic venue, along with concessions and fresh pizza from the theatre's "pie hole."
