A Creative Explosion

'Paris is Burning,' a landmark 1991 film showcasing the golden age of voguing and drag ball culture in New York City through the experiences of people of color in the late 80s and early 90s, will screen on Friday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. at the Portland Arts Museum. The newly restored version of the documentary is presented thanks to the Northwest Film Center and a Nov. 19-21 series of films presented as part of a national Association of Moving Image Archivists conference. Get Ready for Winter

A community Fix-It Fair, a free event where neighbors come together to learn simple and effective ways to save money and stay healthy at home this winter and beyond, will be held Saturday, Nov. 21 at Parkrose High School, 12003 N.E. Shaver St.

Sponsored by the Portland Bureau of Planning and Sustainability, the fair will feature exhibits and workshops from dozens of community partners from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Experts will be available to talk about water and energy savings, home and personal health, food and nutrition, community resources, recycling, yard care and more.

The fair also provides free professional childcare and lunch to attendees.
