Data and Field Services Specialists

United Way of the Columbia-Willamette has embarked on a ten-year campaign to break the cycle of childhood poverty. Success requires changing results for 50,000 kids and their families in our four county region and enlisting 60,000 people to make sure that happens.

We are hiring a Data and Field Services Specialist I and a Specialist II to help support our charge. These individuals will provide the quality information needed to expand United Way's relationship base within corporate accounts and with individual and major donors across our broader community. Key responsibilities include data stewardship, moves management support, data management support, pledge processing support, inquiry resolution, and field material preparation and support.

The ideal candidates will have a minimum of three years related work experience; BA Degree; or a comparable combination of experience and education. Project management experience a plus. Proficiency with Word, PowerPoint, and Excel essential. Advanced proficiency with CRM systems and electronic giving platforms preferred. The Specialist II position will perform individual donor research and assessment and will require prospect research experience.

Hiring Ranges: Specialist I: $33,840-$40,608 / Specialist II: $36,720-$44,064. An Equal Opportunity Employer.

Vice President-Major Gifts

United Way of the Columbia-Willamette has embarked on a ten-year campaign to break the cycle of childhood poverty. Success requires hanging results for 50,000 kids and their families in our four county region and enlisting 60,000 people to make sure that happens.

We are hiring a Vice President of Major Gifts to help lead our charge. This person will lead an ambitious year-round Individual Giving Program and team, aggressively grow a major gifts program, and build an emerging planned giving program. S/he will work closely with other United Way leaders in this, including the CEO, board members, and leadership staff, to design and execute integrated fundraising strategies.

Be part of changing the course of our community and reinventing a solid 100-year old brand.

The ideal candidate will be a seasoned professional with ten-plus years' experience leading a major gifts portfolio; an eager leader, passionate for our cause – because we believe passion inspires excellence; a savvy strategist, comfortable doing both big and small things; a connector who understands the power of the diversity of our community; and a terrific communicator who relishes building relationships.

Hiring Range: $81,000-$101,000. An Equal Opportunity Employer.

Michael Allen Harrison will perform with special guest Julianne Johnson at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church.

Soul Stirring Melodies

Looking for peace and soul stirring melodies on the first Monday evening after Thanksgiving? The candles will be lit for a heartwarming tradition as Michael Allen Harrison and Julianne Johnson perform their 14th annual benefit for the Altar Society at St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, 2408 S.E. 16th Ave., Nov. 30, at 7:30 p.m.

Harrison's signature contemporary music, combined with Johnson's powerful, joyful singing will kick off the holidays in grand style. St. Philip Neri Catholic Church is one of Portland's best venues for music, based on its design by famous architect Pietro Belluschi.

Tickets are $15 regular admission or $25 preferred seating, available at the door, or by calling the church office at 503-231-4955.

In Loving Memory

Don A. Burns, a longtime Portland resident, was born Feb. 20, 1942 in Clarks, La., and died Nov. 10, 2015. A full obituary appeared in our Nov. 18 issue, but the date of his passing was in error and we sincerely regret the error. Services were held Monday at Philadelphia Community Missionary Baptist Church
