

SPORTS

Harold Williams Gym Dedication

Portland Community College is honoring the late Harold Williams on Wednesday, Dec. 2, when the basketball court at the PCC Cascade Campus in north Portland will be officially dedicated in his memory and named "Harold Williams Sr. Court." A brief dedication ceremony is set to take place at approximately 6:45 p.m. in the gym just before the tipoff of the Panthers men's basketball game. The women's game gets under way at 5 p.m. All are welcome to attend.

Williams served on the PCC Board of Directors from 1991

Harold Williams Sr.

until his death in 2012. He had a long record of service to the community and extensive background in civil rights, affirmative action, education and justice.

He served on many advisory committees and volunteered hundreds of hours of time to civic, religious and cultural activities. He was known for his promotion of alternative programs for at-risk students and was successful in expanding classroom space for mentorship programs for students of all ages. He routinely testified on bills of significance to community colleges and worked to partner community college services to poorer, underserved parts of the community.

Football Standout Bowl Bound

You can help De'Angelo Bell of Portland who has earned an invitation to participate in the 2016 USA College Football Bowl, Jan. 15-18, at Savannah State University in Savannah, Ga.

A cornerback at Montana Tech, Bell started all 10 games this season. He totaled 37 tackles (26 solo and 11 assisted) and was named Academic All-Conference. He was also named to the 2015 USA College Football NAIA Pre-Season All-American Team.

De'Angelo Bell

Bell started playing multiple sports as young child in Portland with the help of coaches who served as father figures. His family gives special thanks to coaches Darryl Robinson, Anthony Jordan, De' Damon Smith, Montreal and Robert Brazile and Anthony Stoudamire.

To help pay the expenses needed to attend the bowl, the family is asking for community support. All contributions can be made in care of De'Angelo Bell, American Football Networks, P.O. Box 477, Roseland, NJ 07068, Attention Dennis Wilson, president.

Hoops Tourney for Diversity, Harmony

Portland Parks & Recreation present its first annual Portland Intercultural Basketball tournament on Saturday, Nov. 28 to celebrate diversity and culture, and to help refugees, immigrants and people of color integrate into the city.

The games will be held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the East Portland Community Center, 740 S.E. 106th Ave.

"This exciting tournament promises to showcase just one of many opportunities that Portland Parks & Recreation offers," says PP&R Director Mike Abbate. "We recognize it may often not be easy to get used to a new city which many players now call home. Portland is a welcoming community and our mission is serve all Portlanders equitably with the goal of a healthier, happier community. Good luck to all!"

The tournament will feature up to 16 teams of youth from around the Portland area. Registration is now closed. Players will receive free lunch and tournament t-shirts.

Oregon Symphony
CARLOS KALMAR, MUSIC DIRECTOR

GOSPEL CHRISTMAS

Friday, December 11 | 7:30 pm
Saturday, December 12 | 7:30 pm
Sunday, December 13 | 4 pm

Charles Floyd, conductor Gary Hemenway, music director
Northwest Community Gospel Choir

This 17-year tradition keeps getting bigger and better. The region's premier gospel singers and the Oregon Symphony orchestra will have you on your feet, clapping and shouting, celebrating the true spirit of the season. Don't miss out on this exhilarating experience!

OrSymphony.org | 503-228-1353 Logical Position

ARLENE SCHNITZER CONCERT HALL

Now is the Time!

OPEN ENROLLMENT for Medicare AND

YES, You CAN have HEALTH INSURANCE!

We will make this easy for you.

Call Henri Cross at 503-241-6147

Excellent coverage and even

Zero premium, or Low-Cost affordable Medicare and Health Insurance.

HE CROSS COMPANY

www.insure-ez.com

1001 SW Fifth Avenue, Suite 1100 Portland, OR 97204

A FREE HR platform for Group Insurance clients!

www.hrvana.com