Kendrick Lamar

Rapper, King of the Grammys

(AP) - Kendrick Lamar is the king of the Grammys: The rapper is the leading nominee for the awards with 11, including album of the year for "To Pimp a Butterfly" and song of the year for "Alright."

Lamar's other nominations include best rap album for "Butterfly," rap performance for "Alright," pop duo/group performance for "Bad Blood" with Taylor Swift and dance recording "Never Catch Me" with Flying Lotus. He's nominated twice for both best rap song with "Alright" and for co-writing Kanye West's "All Day," as well as best music video for "Alright" and "Bad Blood."

"It's a testimony to his artistry," said Recording Academy CEO Neil Portnow of Lamar. "He's someone that's very serious about his art and about his craft, and has been working it for quite some time. And this is one of those instances where the work pays off."

The 58th Grammys will air live on Feb. 15 from Los Angeles.

Holiday Magic Breakfast

A popular holiday breakfast theater program takes place over several weekends this month at the Lakewood Theater company in Lake Oswego.

An all-new version of the 24th annual "The Peppermint Bear Show 2015: The Taming of the Shoe," is playing at the Lakewood Center for the Arts, 368 S. St. St., with two performances at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. on Saturdays, Dec. 12 and 19, and two performances at the same times on Sundays, Dec. 13 and 20.

Audience members enjoy a special holiday continental breakfast as characters interact with young audience members. There will even be a visit by a man in a red suit! The performance is suitable for ages 3-12. Tickets are $14 for adults and $12 for students. Reservations are required by calling 503-635-3901 or online at Lakewood-center.org.

The Peppermint Bear stars in a new adventure.
