NW Dance Holiday Show

The NW Dance Project presents "In Good Company" a fun and holiday festive show, with performances on Thursday, Dec. 17 and Friday, Dec. 18 at the new, historic venue, Revolution Hall, in the former Washington High School of southeast Portland.

Inspired by their own school days, the dancers choreographed all the works themselves, re-crafting a traditional holiday show just for the former school venue.

With music running the gamut from Puccini to Dick Dale and several site-specific surprises, "In Good Company" provides a bit of fun respite from the usual holiday fare and offers a unique and intimate evening of dance for the whole family.

Advance tickets are $32-$40 and can be purchased online at nwdanceproject.org or by calling 503-828-8285.

Spike Lee Film 'Chiraq' Opens

"Chiraq, the new film by Spike Lee, opened this month and is now playing at the Hollywood Theater in Portland. The film is a modern day adaptation of the ancient Greek play "Lysistrata," the character from ancient Greece who asked women to withhold sexual privileges from their husbands and lovers as a means of forcing the men to negotiate peace.

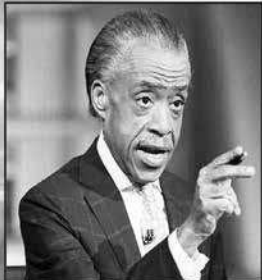

"Chiraq" follows the murder of a child by a stray bullet and a group of women led by Lysistrata (Teyonah Parris) who organize against the on-going violence in Chicago's Southside, creating a movement that challenges the nature of race, sex and violence in America and around the world.

The film co-stars Samuel L. Jackson, Angela Bassett, John Cusack and Jennifer Hudson.
