Over 800 volunteers go in to make the annual Christmas Festival of Lights at The Grotto come alive. The celebration runs every night, except Christmas day, through Wednesday, Dec. 30.

Must See Holiday Tradition

Since 1988, The Grotto's Christmas Festival of Lights has become a must-see holiday tradition celebrating the true meaning of Christmas.

Known as the World's Largest Christmas Choral Festival, The Festival of Lights features five different choirs and special guests each night from throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Visitors can enjoy hot beverages and food as they stroll through The Grotto's amazing million lights on display. Each night, children enjoy the petting zoo and interactive puppet show while carolers and dulcimer minstrels entertain guests of all ages.

The celebration continues every night, except Christmas day, through Wednesday, Dec. 30. Gates are open from 5 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., with grounds closing at 10 p.m.

General admission is $10 and children (3-12) are $4.

The Grotto is located at Northeast 85th Avenue and Sandy Boulevard.

GREGORY ALAN ISAKOV

January 14

Paul Ghun Kim, conductor

The indie folk troubadour makes his debut with the Oregon Symphony. Renowned for his deeply lyrical songs, he has a way of making concert halls feel like intimate living rooms with his hushed, moving music.
