Union Gospel Prepares Easter Brunch

Union Gospel Mission expects to serve 600 to 800 meals to the homeless at their annual Easter Brunch, a free event open to anyone in need. The brunch takes place at 15 N.W. Third Ave. on Sunday, March 27 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The menu includes Mission-style Eggs Benedict, potatoes o'brien, ambrosia fruit salad, juice and coffee. In addition, guests will receive Hope Tote hygiene kits, containing toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, soap, and more.

"We are excited to host our Easter Sunday event and make it a wonderful day for people who may be struggling with homelessness," said Bill Russell, executive director of the mission. "Most importantly, we will share God's love with people on Easter."

A guest enjoys Easter Brunch at last year's annual holiday meal for the homeless and people in need at Union Gospel Mission, downtown.

Union Gospel Mission is seeking financial support and donations of coffee for the event. To give a donation, go to ugmportland.org. To donate coffee, contact Lori Quinney at 503-274-4483.
