A new online resource allows students, staff and faculty at Clackamas Community College to easily search and request library materials at 39 other academic institutions in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

College Library Services Expand

Clackamas Community College will be vastly expanding its library resources by joining the Orbis Cascade Alliance.

The partnership allows students, staff and faculty to easily search and request library materials from 39 other academic institutions in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. With enhanced access to archival and manuscript collections, the alliance also offers a print repository, cooperative purchasing of databases, e-journals and demand-driven and licensed e-book collections.

“Clackamas Community College looks forward to working with public and private colleges and universities across the Northwest while strengthening library services to our students, staff and faculty,” said Phillip King, CCC dean of instruction and student services.

Hip Hop Inspires Portland Brews

Rap music is the latest inspiration in Portland’s thirst for micro brews.

A Hip Hop IPA Night to introduce five Hip-Hop themed IPAs from Portland’s Lompoc Brewing will be held at Lompoc Tavern, 1620 N.W. 23rd Ave, on Wednesday, April 6 from 4 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Hip Hop themed IPAs are World Class Wreckin Brew, Mama Said Hop You Out, Hotel

Motel Holiday Inn, MCA IPA and Hopster’s Paradise. All five beers will be available on a taster tray or sold individually by the pint.

Lompoc is known for doing themed IPA series and past themes have included spies, baseball, classic rock, science fiction and more. According to head brewer Bryan Keilty, “If someone suggests a theme and it sounds like fun, we’ll do it.”
