St. Johns Throws a Party

The St. Johns community of north Portland throws a party Saturday, Saturday, May 14 with its annual Parade and downtown Bizarre.

The St. Johns Parade with its floats, bands, drill teams, and horses has been a tradition since 1962. The parade kicks off promptly at noon.

Celebrating its 10th year, the St. Johns Bizarre is coming into its own with an eclectic lineup of local musical talent, an expanded craft fair featuring over 100 vendors, and more family-friendly offerings than ever before.

A free event, the Bizarre takes place from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The group Quasi will headline a lineup of entertainment that also includes the R&B/post-disco phenoms Chanti Darling, the weirdo-pop confectioners Minden, the perfectly crafted folk-rock of The Domestics, and the infectiously catchy power-pop of Patsy's Rats.

Chanti Darling will bring their pop and disco sounds to St. Johns Saturday, May 14 as part of the entertainment at the annual St. Johns Bizarre, a day-long event in the heart of the north Portland community that is held in conjunction with the St. Johns Parade, which starts at noon.

Danish Gospel at Celebration

Celebration Tabernacle on North Denver Avenue in Kenton presents the KEFAS Gospel Choir of Denmark which will perform a free public concert on Sunday, May 15 at 7 p.m. The esteemed and world-touring choir was founded in 1975 and is based in the Methodist church in Copenhagen, Jerusalem.
