When Two Worlds Collide

The Northwest Film Center at the Portland Art Museum presents "When Two Worlds Collide" as part of its Voice in Action: Human Rights on Film series. Directors Heidi Brandenburg and Matthew Orzel's stirring film takes us to the heart of a tense and controversial battle between Peruvian leaders invested in extracting natural resources from the Amazon, and indigenous activists equally determined to protect their homes and a fragile ecosystem. Screens Wednesday, Oct. 5 at 7 p.m.
