Little Shop of Horrors

With a score that's part rock 'n' roll, part doo-wop and part Motown, "Little Shop of Horrors" has opened at Portland Center Stage. It's the story of a shy and love-struck florist assistant who finds fame, fortune and a whole lot more when he nurtures a strange little plant with a strong – and scary – thirst.

Based on the Roger Corman film of the same name, this unique musical swept the Off-Broadway awards when it premiered and has continued to be a crowd favorite ever since.

Little Shop of Horrors plays through Oct. 16. For tickets and more information, visit pcs.org/littleshop.
