

More Trips. Better Connections.

We want to bring more bus service your way in 2017–2018, with a focus on a more reliable ride and better connections to jobs and schools. This includes:

- More service on Burnside and in Milwaukie, North Portland and Beaverton
- Better connections to MAX and Hayden Island in North Portland, and jobs and schools in Troutdale and the Columbia Corridor.
- New service from Beaverton TC to Washington Square and Tigard TC.

See the full list and weigh in on the proposed changes at trimet.org/busplan.

The Week in Review

Ron Glass Remembered

Ron Glass, the handsome, prolific character actor best known for his role as the gregarious, sometimes sardonic detective Ron Harris in the long-running cop comedy “Barney Miller,” has died at age 71. Glass died Friday of respiratory failure, his agent told The Associated Press

Fidel Castro Dead at 90

Former President Fidel Castro, who led a rebel army to improbable victory in Cuba, embraced Soviet-style communism and defied the power of 10 U.S. presidents during his half century rule, died Friday at age 90. For decades, Castro served as an inspiration and source of support to revolutionaries from Latin America to Africa.

Recount Moves Ahead

Democrat Hillary Clinton’s campaign will take part in a recount of Wisconsin votes in the presidential race. Wisconsin’s election board on Friday approved the recount requested by Green Party candidate Jill Stein. She has said she wants to guarantee the integrity of the U.S. voting system since computer hacking had marked the Nov. 8 election.

Soccer Team Plane Crashes

A plane carrying finalists for the South American football championship crashed in Colombia Monday, killing at least 75 of the 81 people on board. The British Aerospace 146 short-haul plane was reportedly carrying members of the Brazilian club soccer team Chapecoense.

Supporting Standing Rock

Neil Young is calling on President Barack Obama “to step in and end” what he calls the “violence” against protesters demonstrating against an oil pipeline being built in North Dakota near an Indian reservation. In an open letter on Facebook posted Monday, the 71-year-old rock star calls the protest at the Standing Rock Indian Reservation “an awakening.”

Jimmy Mak’s to Close

Premier Portland jazz club Jimmy Mak’s will host its final show on New Year’s Eve. The announcement comes as owner Jimmy Makarounis battles larynx cancer. “I simply need to step away from the business to focus on healing and beating this disease, once and for all,” he wrote.

Murder Case Reward

The Gresham Police Department, along with the Crime Stoppers of Oregon, are offering a $2,500 reward for information that leads to the arrest of Demarco Herbert “Buddy” Streeter, a man wanted in the shooting death of Harry Brogdon Jr. last week on Southeast Stephens Court in Gresham.
