

World Arts Tribute to MLK

Band, rapper-poet-social justice advocate Mic Crenshaw, and the nationally acclaimed Jefferson Dancers.

World Arts will present lifetime awards to people from the community who have advanced the cause of civil rights, including Carole Smith, Armando Gonzales, Ron Silver, Rolia Manyongai, Ray and Ada Tellis, Pearl Thomas, Raymond Burrell and Eldon T. Jones. The celebration will also recognize those who have passed with posthumous awards: Anne Granville, Karen Bowles, Pastor

Mary Overstreet and Geoffrey Brooks.

World Arts Foundation, Inc. was established in 1978 in Portland to promote and preserve African-American contributions to the American culture, and to support community education through the interface of arts and education in interactive, visual and performing media that showcases local and regional talent.

The celebration honors and celebrates with live performances of African American song, spoken word, dance and music in the spirit of keeping Dr. King's dream alive.

That old law about 'an eye for an eye' leaves everybody
